

GREAT DECISIONS

America's largest discussion program on world affairs.

Simulcasts Tuesdays @ Noon

February 11-March 31, 2020

City Hall, Council Chambers

Free of Charge - Bring Your Lunch - Beverages Provided Register at www.eventbrite.com

February 11

"Kashmir: Flashpoint between India and Pakistan"

How do we de-escalate conflict between these two nuclear powers?

Raza Ahmad Rumi,
Director, Dept of Journalism,
Ithaca College.

February 18

"Mirror to the World: The Philippines under Duterte"

What does Duterte's rise signal to the rest of the world?

Julie McCarthy, International Correspondent,
Manila Bureau, NPR

February 25

"Regional Security in the Red Sea"

Vital to global trade since the time of ancient Egypt, how do we ensure security in the Red Sea?

Steve Dalzell,
Senior Defense Policy Researcher,
RAND Corporation

March 3

"Green Peacebuilding: Justice in the Face of Climate Change"

*What can young activists teach us about
peace and climate change?*

Marisa O. Ensor,
School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University

March 10

"Human Trafficking: Global and Local Perspectives"

*Human trafficking is a global phenomenon—what's happening
in our own backyard?*

Panel moderated by Rachel VerWys,
Co-creator, Solutions to End Exploitation (SEE)

March 17

"The Future is Now: Artificial Intelligence and National Security"

Dispelling the myths - can Artificial Intelligence live up to our expectations?

Lindsey Sheppard, Fellow, Center for Strategic & International Studies
(CSIS)

March 24

"China's Road into Latin America"

*Should the U.S. be concerned about China's growing
"sphere of influence"?*

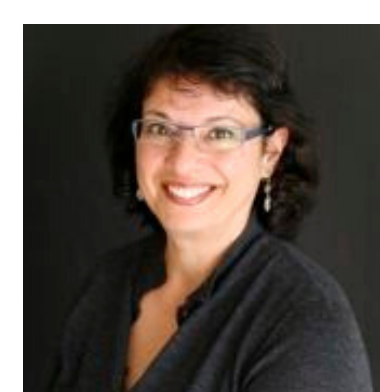

Margaret Myers,
Director, Asia &
Latin America,
Inter-American Dialogue

March 31

"Central American Immigration and U.S. Foreign Policy"

Is there a humane solution to immigration at the southern border?

Sonia Nazario,
Pulitzer Prize winner and author of Enrique's Journey