

WASHINGTON SQUARE NEIGHBORHOOD

.....
WE WANT YOU TO LIVE HERE
.....

Every Hollander knows Washington Square. Built in the early 1900s, it's home to restaurants, retail, hair care, and art. This neighborhood also includes the Holland Aquatic Center. This perfect-for-playtime fitness center boasts a million gallons of water. Or skip the dip, grab a friend, a couple tennis racquets and walk to Moran Park for the game with love built right in. And if you overdo it, no worries. Your neighborhood is just next door to Holland Hospital. So play healthy while staying safe.

WHY WASHINGTON SQUARE?

A COZY AREA BUILT IN THE EARLY 1900s WITH TIMELESS ARCHITECTURAL DETAILS.

WALKABLE TO AREA PARKS, THE WATERFRONT AND OUR STATE-OF-THE-ART SENIOR CENTER.

HOME TO THE VIBRANT WASHINGTON SQUARE COMMERCIAL DISTRICT.

A DIVERSE, FRIENDLY AND ACTIVE NEIGHBORHOOD.

Smack dab in the middle.

If reading the description of the Washington Square neighborhood left you thinking this neighborhood must be smack dab in the center of Holland, you're right. So welcome to the middle of everything. For many, that's reason enough to move in. But let us be more specific. If you walk from Washington Square itself, you're less than fifteen minutes from downtown, Centennial Park, Kollen Park, Boys & Girls Club and our state-of-the-art senior center, Evergreen Commons.

Square plates.

From Italian Food to the breakfast diner, you'll love dining in the Washington Square Neighborhood at Pereddies or The Biscuit, all popular options for a taste of this diverse neighborhood. Not sure what you're in the mood for? Maybe a trip to the newly renovated historic Minit Mart for a sandwich or a snack is the solution.

Hanging around.

Washington Square is centered among houses with timeless architectural details. There are plenty of single family and two family homes that offer lots of friendly front porches. Sit back, relax and wave to your neighbors as they walk by. This diverse neighborhood is home to everyone from young families to retirees making it a rich environment for making friends, backyard get-togethers and a great life.

Grab the Gatorade.

Tennis anyone? Moran Park offers ten lighted courts so you can play morning, noon, and night. But it's not just the courts that get you. There's basketball, volleyball, a covered picnic area and a playground for the kids. Are you a walker? We've got the perfect stroll with a twist. Stroll the Wellness Trail and use its low-impact workout stations for a healthy life.
